MEDIA RELEASE
MARCH 8, 2010

The Kootenai County Sheriff's Department is investigating a robbery that occurred Monday night at the Walgreen's Drug Store in Hayden.

Initial investigation indicates that a lone male entered the store at about 8:45 pm and requested some medication. After being told he needed a prescription from his doctor, he told the Pharmacist that was going to rob her. After the Pharmacist gave the suspect an undisclosed amount of the medication, he put money on the counter and left the business. There was no mention of a weapon.

Kootenai County Sheriff's deputies arrived within a minute of the call, but the suspect had already driven away from the scene.

The suspect is described as a Caucasian male in his mid-forties, about 5'-10" tall with a mustache. He was last seen wearing a ball cap, brown jacket and blue jeans. He left the store driving a black, possibly Toyota, sedan with unknown license plates.

The case is currently under investigation and more information will be made public as it becomes available.
