Body of Missing Woman Found in Kootenai County

Coeur d'Alene, Idaho: The remains of Christine Lott -34 of Priest River, Idaho were discovered in a remote wooded area of Kootenai County. Lott was reported as missing from Bonner County on March 27, 2004.

Lott's remains were discovered along a Forest Service Road near Coeur d'Alene, Idaho in February of 2016. The news of her discovery was kept confidential until her husband could be located and interviewed by KCSO Detectives.

This case is being investigated as a homicide in a cooperative effort with the Bonner County Sheriff's Office and Kootenai County Sheriff's Office. Anyone who may have had contact with the Lott Family in the 2004 time period, or who may have information regarding this incident, are strongly urged to contact Major Crimes Detective J. Northrup by leaving a message at (208) 446-2237 or emailing him directly at jnorthrup@kcgov.us
