Kootenai County Deputy Involved in Injury Crash

Hayden, ID – A Kootenai County Sheriff's Deputy was involved in a two vehicle injury crash just north of Hayden near the intersection of N. Ramsey Rd. and Boekel Rd. tonight at approximately 7:25 p.m.

The deputy involved has been identified as Craig Chambers. Deputy Chambers was transported by ambulance to Kootenai Health with non-life threatening injuries.

The second vehicle involved is believed to have been driven by Matthew Z. Conway -23 of Coeur d'Alene, ID. Conway was also transported to Kootenai Health with non-life threatening injuries.

Troopers from Idaho State Police have responded and will be the primary agency investigating this crash. Details regarding the cause of this collision aren't know at this time.

Due to this being an active and on-going investigation, no further information will be released by the Sheriff's Office at this time. For any further questions regarding this incident, please contact the Idaho State Police.
