Media Release August 25, 2017

Hayden, Idaho – Missing Hayden man located this morning after being gone for six days.

This morning at just before 8:00 am, the Kootenai County Sheriff's Office received a call from Western States Equipment, located in the 10700 block of N. Highway 95 that a disoriented male was on their property.

Once deputies arrived on scene, they confirmed that the male was the reported missing person, Timothy P. Sullivan, 59 years old of Hayden, Idaho.

Sullivan appeared to be dehydrated and in need of medical care; he was then transported to Kootenai Health for treatment.

Sheriff's detectives were notified and they responded to the hospital, where the investigation into his whereabouts for the past six days is still ongoing.
