Media Release Swift Water Rescue Training May 10, 2017 / 1:40 PM

Post Falls, Idaho: The Kootenai County Sheriff's Office would like to invite members of the media to our annual Swift Water Rescue Training.

Today, between 10:00 am and 4:00 pm, the Kootenai County Sheriff's Office Dive Team will be conducting our annual Swift Water Rescue Training at Corbin Park in Post Falls, ID. Water recreation season is nearly upon us and this is a great opportunity to get the message out to our citizens about water safety.

Members of the media are welcome to take photos, videos and conduct interviews. Assistant Dive Team Leader Sgt. Ward Crawford will be at Corbin Park and your point of contact at this location.

Also remember the KCSO is hosting a free Boating Safety Class on May 20 from 8:30 AM until 4:30 PM at the Kootenai County Search and Rescue Building located at 10865 N. Ramsey Rd. Hayden, ID.

We hope to see you there!

Ben Wolfinger, Sheriff
